Annex

Report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda

I. Introduction

1. The present report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda covers the period January to December 2001.

2. The report of the Committee on its activities for the period January to December 2000 was submitted to the Council on 22 December 2000 (see S/2000/1227).

II. Summary of Committee activities during the reporting period

3. For 2001, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Moctar Ouane (Mali) as Chairman, with the delegations of Ireland and Tunisia providing the two Vice-Chairmen.

4. Although the restrictions imposed by paragraph 13 of Council resolution 918 (1994) on the sale or supply of arms and related materiel to the Government of Rwanda were terminated on 1 September 1996 in accordance with paragraph 8 of Council resolution 1011 (1995), all States are required to continue to implement the foregoing restrictions with a view to preventing the sale and supply of arms and related materiel to non-governmental forces for use in Rwanda.

III. Observations

5. In the absence of a specific monitoring mechanism to ensure the effective implementation of the arms embargo, the Committee wishes to recall its repeated observation that it relies solely on the cooperation of States and organizations that are in a position to provide it with information on violations of the arms embargo. During the reporting period, no violations of the arms embargo were brought to the attention of the Committee.
